The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/549,554	Applicant(s) KIENKE ET AL.
	Examiner Anthony D. Barfield	Art Unit 3636

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 22 April 2008.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL.                      2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 17-35 are objected to because of the following informalities: The word “tooththing” needs to be changed to either tooth or teething for clarity. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 17-21,24-26,28-30,33-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Heesch. Heesch shows a recliner mechanism (10,16,26,32,36,46,50) comprising a first fitting part (16) which has a first tooththing (22); a latching element (26) which has a second tooththing (28), that is engageable with the first tooththing; a clamping element (32) which has a third tooththing (38); while a toothed element (46) including a fourth tooththing (50) encircles a spring (52) having a leg spring. The spring is configured to act on the toothed element (see Fig. 1) and indirectly on the clamping element via the third tooththing and fourth tooththing to hold the latching element in engagement with the first fitting part. The clamping element has a control contour (circle) which corresponds to the control contour (circle) of the latching element (see Fig. 1). Regarding claims 20 and 35, a toothed element (36,38) comprises inner (36) and outer rings (38) whereby a spring (40) having a leg spring is arranged concentrically therebetween and is encircled by the toothed element, which acts with a clamping element (30) having a third toothing. Each of the, clamping element and toothed element have a respective fastening opening (which receives a pivot pin 34, 48) but inherently may receive a transmission rod.

Heesch further shows the latching element, clamping element and toothed element are mounted on a second fitting part (10).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heesch. Heesch shows all of the teachings of the claimed invention except the use of a flat spring. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the spring of Heesch with a flat spring since applicant has not disclosed that a flat spring solves any stated problem and it appears that the spring as taught by Heesch, would perform equally well.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22-23 and 31-32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
